

Lecture 2: Search Algorithms

Search algorithms are used in AI to navigate a problem space in order to find a goal state. Uninformed search strategies include Breadth-First Search (BFS) and Depth-First Search (DFS).

Informed Search

Informed search strategies use heuristics to guide the search. The A* algorithm combines the cost so far with a heuristic estimate of the cost to the goal to find optimal paths efficiently.