

Lecture 2: Unsupervised Learning

Unsupervised learning finds patterns in data without labeled outputs. Common tasks include clustering and dimensionality reduction.

Clustering Algorithms

K-Means, Hierarchical Clustering, and DBSCAN are widely used clustering algorithms, each with different assumptions about cluster shape and density.